SHARON WESTON BROOME
Mayor-President

April 12, 2017

To the Citizens of Baton Rouge and East Baton Rouge Parish:

Today, April 12, 2017, marks my 100th day in office, and I want to express what an honor it is to serve as your Mayor-President. Over the past 100 days, we have been working diligently to advance my vision for this parish, and I am proud to say that we accomplished some significant goals.

Over the past 100 days, I have had the privilege of traveling across our parish and meeting so many great people. In fact, in our first 100 days, I've been privileged to host or attend more than 200 community events and meetings. The love and support I have been given reflects the fabric of our community, which I spoke about in my inaugural address.

My 100-day accomplishments report is a snapshot of the work that my team and I have achieved. Much of our work has focused on laying the foundation to move our city forward in the future. Whether it's strengthening police and community relations, building a stronger workforce, setting higher expectations in early childhood development, advocating for flood recovery, or developing strategies to alleviate traffic congestion on the highways, our first 100 days is just the beginning of more work to come.

I invite you to review the work we've done over the past 100 days and stay connected with me via social media outlets, or by visiting www.brgov.com.

Please join me as we work to maintain a safe, unified community filled with vitality and world-class excellence.

Respectfully,
